Dockside Entertainment Field Trip Terms

- Field trip contact needs to be signed and pre-payment is required to hold any reservations.
- Field trip rates are for non-profit organizations only such as schools.
- 30-day cancellation required for full refund, sooner than 30 days no refund will be given.

- Each field trip is for a minimum of two-hour time block. The renter will have a 15-minute grace period to pick up and leave the facility to make sure set up can be complete for next event if one is scheduled.
- Field trip time starts at the time of agreed rental if renter arrives late their time for their two-hour rental will not be extended and will end at agreed time.
- 1 supervisor is required for every 20 field trip participants.
- Each individual field trip guest does not need to be checked in to the facility, but field trip supervisors must check in for the group upon arrival.
- The field trip supervisors are responsible for ensuring each facility guest entering the building follows the rules and participation guideline found on the Dockside Entertainment website at: www.dockside1.com.
- An additional cleaning fee of $100 may be charged if the facility is not cleaned or left in an unfavorable state.
- The renter can bring outside food/drinks but all outside food and drink must remain in designated areas.

I agree to the above terms and conditions for a party rental with Dockside Entertainment.
